

Stephanie Zeverino Director of Business Development Belmont Village Senior Living

Diverse, in its truest definition, means various kinds or forms. Stephanie Zeverino's career as a top-notch marketer, sales professional and relationship builder has taken yet another giant leap forward in the changing world of senior living. As the first person on the ground of the extraordinary Belmont Village Senior Living Fort Lauderdale, Stephanie Zeverino's position as Director of Business Development for their newest location, has encompassed every aspect of senior living marketing. Independent, Assisted, Memory Care and Belmont's award-winning Circle of Friends program for MCI residents, Stephanie's skill sets are a perfect match for this premier senior living community. Belmont Village welcomed Stephanie 10 years ago into the fold for a new chapter in what will be exponential growth for both employer and employee.

Starting a successful sales and marketing career over 25 years ago with Walt Disney World in Orlando, Stephanie's expertise and ever-expanding career has brought her to more closely serving the needs of others in her position.