

Ella Furman Golden Age Manor

Ella's life has indeed been a long journey to arrive where she is today. It started 35 years ago when she left the Soviet Union to settle in Pittsburgh. It was there that she completed her undergraduate work at her studies at the Joseph Katz Graduate School in Business Management from Pittsburgh University.

Ella's experience of now working as administrator in an assisted living facility for the past 11 years has giving her an overall knowledge of different aspects of business. In addition, she started a new adventure, "Enhanced Living Consulting's Inc" that will provide home accessibility, general contracting services for physical modifications, and adaptive equipment that allows an individual full integration and accessibility use of their home.

Ella is also a leader in FALA (Florida Assisted Living Association) in Broward County. She works diligently at promoting excellence and quality services in assisted care communities where one can live and age with dignity. For 20 years she had a financial background working as an accountant. She has earned a strong reputation for quality workmanship across multiple categories.

Ella has a passion for classical music, jazz, and ballet. She often attends many concerts and shows related to these passions.
