Creative Business Impressions

Terry Arke was born in Staten Island, NY and moved to Florida when she was 10, leaving some relatives behind -- the Italian side of the family. She speaks very little Italian. A middle child of three (older brother, younger sister). her mother taught her to treat other people the way we wanted to be treated, and her father taught her good work ethic, putting your best into what you do to provide for your family.

Moving to a small town on the Gulf of Florida for a bit, then Jacksonville enabled Terry to grow up with horses. She has a son, 2 grandchildren, and a wonderful daughter-in-law.

Terry enjoys painting with acrylics, travel and nature, and recently got married a few months before COVID. She and her husband enjoy traveling, mostly within Europe - Italy, Spain, Greece, Norway so far, as well as within the US.

To mention one thing that about her ancestry - Terry's great grandparents and grandfather were on the Carpathia, the ship that helped to save survivors of Titanic.

Terry lives in Boca Raton and loves being near the water. She enjoys being able to help people and got into the promo industry by accident. A friend helped her see that she can enjoy perks that go along with this industry. After learning the qualities of a good customer service rep through work with AT&T's transfer agent and sales and working with one of Warren Buffet's companies, Terry Arke's self-employment career was inevitable.
