

Vivian Piereschi

Caregiver Navigator

Area Agency on Aging of Broward County

Vivian Piereschi brings a wealth of experience and dedication to her role as the Caregiver Navigator for the Area Agency on Aging of Broward. With over twenty years in the public sector, Vivian began her career as an aide to Congressman Peter Deutsch and later served as District Director for Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz. During her tenure, she enjoyed her role in assisting constituents with healthcare issues, particularly Medicare and matters pertaining to the Affordable Care Act.

In addition to Vivian's public sector experience, she also worked in various capacities within homecare agencies, long-term care facilities, and skilled nursing facilities, focusing on human resources. Her educational background includes a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Florida State University and a Master's in Public Administration. She feels fortunate that her professional career has allowed her to serve the community, particularly seniors and caregivers.

Outside of work, Vivian enjoys reading biographies, especially those about historical figures, and is an avid fan of Jane Austen's literary works. She also enjoys bingeing episodes of Bridgerton and The Bear, for contrast. Vivian resides in Miramar with her husband and two sons. Her oldest son works for the Florida Panthers (Go CATS) so the entire family has been enjoying the team's Stanley Cup win! She's also the mom to three dogs with big personalities who give the family an enormous amount of love and joy!
