

Darin Gull
President
TRACI.net

Darin Gull grew up in North Dakota where he learned a hard work ethic, becoming an entrepreneur at age nine, when he started a lawn mowing & snow removal service. He also became a professional magician & juggler and performed for over 10 years. His first corporate job was with K-Mart where he started in Loss Prevention and worked up to Assistant Manager. Darin moved to Florida on December 26, 1983 to do an internship at IBM while completing his degree at FAU and also became a competitive cyclist specializing in time trials.

In 1991, Darin Gull, President of TRACI.net, joined the organization to revamp their internal operations and re-focus the company direction in the everchanging communications industry. A cloud communications solutions provider with over 34 years of experience in communications, TRACI.net is your one-stop shop for all your communications needs taking the aches and pains out of phone and internet services

Married to his wife Deborah since 1995, Darin has two daughters Stephanie & Katherine who he traveled the nation with for fencing tournaments. He continues to love travel and time with his family.

Darin serves as a high school robotics mentor in the Boca Raton area, making it to World Championships two of the last three years. He also facilitates a Suicide Survivor Group in Boca to help those who lost a loved one to suicide. Darin focuses on positive mental health and supporting those who struggle.
