Falowski Kalis McIntee
Funeral & Cremation Services

Christopher Moore is a nature loving Upstate New Yorker (Adirondack Mountains) with seven (7) years in New England (Massachusetts) and transplanted to South Florida two decades ago. Chris has worked in Ski Area Operations, to Corporate Banking Title Insurance/Settlement and now in the Funeral Service Industry for over 12 years. Chris is an adventurer at heart, enjoys exploring beaches, hiking trails especially during the fall, and hunting for antiques, arts and crafts are his passion and enjoys pottery mission furniture, collector of Baskets and Duck Decoys. Chris currently lost his partner of 30 years in August 2024. He is passionate about his job at Falowski Kalis McIntee Funeral and Cremation Services, which is independently owned and operated since 1998 and serve all faiths, religion, ethnic groups. In the words of Benjamin Franklin, “In this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes”, life is a journey of daily challenges and at the funeral home he is passionate about serving the families and comforting them during their time of loss, also helping people pre-arrange their services.
