

Annette Wellington

Senior Helpers

Annette Wellington started her career as an accountant in Jamaica then moved to the USA where she dedicated 20 years in the mortgage banking industry before entering the home health arena. Annette is a Registered Nurse and attained an MBA and MSN Degree from University of Phoenix. She is also a Florida International University and Miami Dade College alumni. Annette started in the home care industry in 2008 and is the proud owner of one of the Senior Helpers Home Health Agency franchises located in Broward County, Florida.

Annette is highly active in the Broward community and is an advocate for the elderly. She is currently the Secretary and one of the Past Presidents of the Broward Coalition on Aging (BCOA), the Chairperson for the City of Miramar Elderly Advisory Board, member of various Advisory Boards - Broward Technical Schools, Galen University, Alzheimer Association Health and Wellness Coalition and the Broward ALZ Walk Committee. Her mission is to educate and provide the best care for seniors and disabled veterans in the Broward Community. Senior Helpers is in the City of Hollywood where we are members of the Greater Hollywood Chamber of Commerce and serve on the Ambassadors Team.

Annette lives in the beautiful City of Miramar and is a member of the sandwich generation. She is the proud mother of two biological sons and three adopted daughters who are siblings. She enjoys volunteering in her community, travelling to unusual places while taking care of her elderly parents.
